

We're not your average used bookstore.

Once & Again Books is a combination of the (rarely seen these days) neighborhood bookstore, offering brand new bestsellers and other local favorites, along with a large selection of used books, all in a clean, well-organized store that feels more like a new bookstore than what you've come to expect from used bookstores. You'll find new copies of not only today's bestsellers, but also titles from authors you can't always find in used bookstores—writers like Vince Flynn, Lee Child, Diana Gabaldon, or the financial advice books of Dave Ramsey, just to name a few. For the younger set, you'll find Shel Silverstein, or popular series like Magic Tree House or Percy Jackson. And if we have used copies of those, they'll be right beside the new ones, clearly marked. Our roots are firmly in used books, so you'll always find more used books (at half or less of the original price), than new ones.

Required Reading for local schools is an area of major focus for us, and we place several orders a week to get or keep the right titles in. It's an imperfect process, but we'll match our performance to anyone in this arena.

If you need something we don't have, we can order it for you and receive it within a day or two, in many cases. And don't just assume Amazon has it cheaper; our price for a new paperback book beats Amazon on virtually all of the above authors or series (as of our price check 3/09/10). (We're thinking you probably didn't know that). And you'll never pay any freight on an order for a new book from us.

We try very hard to have what you want, or get what you want if we don't have it, because we want to be your bookstore. Not just used bookstore, but bookstore. Period.

We sincerely and personally appreciate your business.
